OUR FACTS BEARING UPON C. G. POWNING'S CANDIDACY FOR CONGRESSIONAL HONORS—
MR. BOARDMAN'S PART.

The Evening Gazette of last evening publishes a review of a speech made by W. M. Boardman at the Reno Opera House, on Monday evening. We extract as follows, and make answer:

Mr. Boardman began by saying that he was not only a Republican to-day but for all time, and he felt it due to himself that he should meet certain secret stabs at his character by an open avowal of the plain truth.

He had been elected by the County Central Committee to be one of Washoe's delegation to the State Convention at Carson on August 24th. He had been elected honorably, and as one competent to perform his duty, and had tried to do it. The NEVADA STATE JOURNAL has assumed and published broadcast the fact that the delegation was pledged to C. C. Powning. The delegation went there unpledged, and did its simple duty in saying that Mr. Powning was too young and had neither claims or fitness for the office. This had been done courageously, not as a result of personal feeling but as a plain duty. Returning from Carson was informed that the editor of the JOURNAL had used the vile epithets toward myself, and pronounced his determined and ceaseless opposition. We both came before the County Convention and I received the nomination for State Senator over Mr. Powning and Mr. Thompson, who has addressed you to-night. Mr. Powning has since that time used all means to compass my defeat against all rules of honor and usage and I leave it with you to discriminate between my course and his. The speaker then asked forbearance for this explanation, as it was the only weapon he had with which to meet confessed treachery, and went on to define his position.

Early in the year it was suggested to Mr. Powning that he present his name to the Republican State Convention for the Congressional nomination. Believing that an opportunity would thus be presented to make an honorable record, he allowed his immediate friends to use his name in that connection, and with a hope that success might crown his own and their efforts, he began to request other friends in various portions of the State, to advocate his candidacy. Knowing that without the endorsement of his own county he could not expect to gain the nomination, and believing that the people of Washoe would heartily endorse him at the polls, if successful, Mr. Powning appeared before the Republican County Central Committee and stated that he understood the Committee intended to appoint the six delegates, apportioned from this county, to the Republican State Convention to be held in Carson. If so, he requested that such delegates should be friendly toward him, as he was an aspirant for Congress, and wanted to be at least endorsed by his home folks; at the same time telling the Committee that if there was objection to it, he would immediately withdraw from the canvass, and give up all idea of being a candidate. The Committee, a majority being present, replied that they thought it no more than right for us to have a favorable delegation. The Committee adjourned to meet again two weeks from that day. Meantime Republicans of Reno and elsewhere were asked to give their ideas upon the subject, and a favorable reply was elicited. Mr. Boardman was approached and he replied that "It was no more than right that Powning should have the delegation, and that all others should waive their right, and allow Powning to name his own men." Consequently before the subsequent meeting of the Committee it was generally understood that the six names Powning should present would be the delegates. As the Committee were on the point of meeting in the Judge's room at the Court House, Powning, who was standing in front of the Court House, was approached by Boardman, Smith and Norton, and Smith said he wanted Boardman to be one of the delegates. Boardman spoke up and said to Powning: "Yes; not as against you, but for you." Powning said "All right," and turning to H. L. Fish, who had been selected, asked him if he was willing to have Boardman go in his place. He cheerfully assented and word was sent to Hymers and Kinney to substitute Boardman for Fish. Mr. Boardman went into the Committee meeting and was elected unanimous exception of one, and T. G. Herman was elected in his stead. Until within a few days before the State Convention met we had no idea that Boardman intended to "go back" on us. At this time Mr. Alexander, of the Gazette, told us that he had told him he did not intend to vote for us, nor had he ever promised to. To prove that Boardman had requested to be a delegate "not as against us, but for us" we took Alexander to B. B. Norton, and requested that gentleman to state whether Boardman had ever made such a remark. Mr. Norton said he had. We then, to convince ourselves that Boardman did not propose to play us false, called on him, told him what Alexander had said, and asked if such was the case. He replied in the negative, and professed to be willing to do all in his power to aid us. About this same time, Mr. Boardman told Wm. Thompson, that he proposed to "bust out" Powning; and told others to the same effect. But at the Hayes and Wheeler Club meeting, the night before the State Convention met, he arose, after the Club had passed some resolutions complimentary to us, and which were afterward rescinded because they partook, according to Boardman's opinion, of the nature of a pledge, he arose, as previously stated, and stated that he was a friend of Powning's, intended to do all he could for him, etc. And yet only three or four days previous to this he had told certain parties just the contrary. Now what kind of a man is that? The next day, at Carson, this same man Boardman showed very plainly that he was false to every pledge made or promise given to Powning and his friends. He threw cold water on him at every stage and refused to even vote for him. His base and treacherous conduct at Carson is well known to every Renovite who was in attendance at the State Convention. There was not one present who did not denounce and damn him for it. Betrayed in the house of his friends. Powning cast his influence in favor of Hon. Thos. Wren, and that estimable gentleman received the nomination.

It would hardly be natural for a human being to forget and forgive such a dirty dog trick, and we did intend to make it an especial object to defeat Boardman for any office to which he might aspire, knowing that no one could place any dependence in him, except it was himself and for himself. Unfortunately for this resolve, in an unguarded moment, Powning, on the day the Republican County Convention met, at the request of prominent Republicans whose friendship exceeded their usual good judgment, allowing himself to become a candidate for State Senator. The result proved that his friends had been too sanguine, and he was defeated, for Boardman had been laying his wires for weeks to secure the nomination, which he received, and through the action of the same Convention Powning was chosen Chairman of the County Central Committee. Personally we should and would have been gratified to have seen him defeated. We were pledged to his support, we were placed in a position where the management of the campaign devolved upon us. Hence we were "tied up;" we could do nothing to prove that he was not to be trusted; we could not publish the truth to defeat him; neither could we be false to our own heart, and plead for votes for him. Every influence we did exert redounded to his benefit; we were sorry for it, but we could not help it. Every move made by the Committee while we were Chairman was made for the benefit of the National, State and county ticket as an entire, and any man who asserts to the contrary is a liar. If our paper had any good effect for the Republican cause he received his share; we with him, at Mackay-Fair's camp, exhorted the voters to remain true to the Republican party and its principles. At the conclusion of our speech there he took us by the hand and exclaimed "It was splendid." And so, notwithstanding the concluding charge made in his speech quoted at the head of this article, it is a lie that we did ought to injure him. It stands to reason that if we had been the ingrate he would make as appear we ought to have pursued an entirely different course. We could not afford to have the Republican ticket defeated, or its success endangered, simply because Boardman was not the embodiment of purity; hence for the past few days we have submitted to being a "traitor," and all that sort of infamous lies promulgated by

WEDNESDAY.....NOVEMBER 8, 1876.

THE ELECTION.—Yesterday was a lively day in Reno. Early in the morning the candidates and their friends were at work advancing their respective interests. The election was conducted very orderly and earnestly—the amount of buzzing being immense. Scratching the county ticket amounted almost to a mania. Each voter had his own idea of each candidate and fitted his ticket to it. The large number of "crooked tickets" issued made it necessary to scan every ballot carefully to see that no "foreigners" had been printed thereon. No doubt carelessness in this matter caused many an unintentional vote to be cast yesterday. Up the 4 o'clock the voting was as rapid as possible, but at this hour a lull occurred, after which the voting was light. The Judges ran over the tickets and found 810 polled—140 less than on the register. After supper they counted the head of the ticket and at 10 o'clock reported as follows: Hayes and Wheeler, 455; Tilden and Hendricks, 355.

SNEAK THIEVES.—Night before last Mrs. Al. Lyman, on going to gather in the clothes she had washed that day, found they were hardly dry enough, and concluded to leave them on the line all night. Yesterday morning all that was found on the line was two sheets—everything else having been stolen. The robbery comes particularly hard on them at this time, as Mr. Lyman has been laid up nine weeks to-day with a hand which was badly crushed while coupling cars; hence he was unable to work and earn money and had a doctor's bill to pay.

WRECKED TRAIN.—Yesterday morning the east-bound freight train, No. 5, was wrecked about three quarters of a mile this side of Vista. A portion of the train had passed over a weak rail when it broke and three cars of wool, one car of merchandise and caboose were thrown from the track. The track was torn up for a distance of three quarters of a mile. The wrecking party was soon at the spot, but did not get the wreck cleared away and the track repaired until after 5 o'clock last evening—twelve hours after it happened. No one was hurt.

WRESTLING.—To morrow evening Homer Lane and S. D. Tracy will test each other's skill and strength as wrestlers at the Reno Opera House. The match is to be best two in three falls, for $100 a side and gate money. President of the evening, H. H. Mason. Referees, S. L. Clifford, J. D. Shaw and Peter Robertson. Doors open at 7½, wrestling to commence at 8½. Admission, 50 cents.

THE STATE.—We guess there is no doubt but what Nevada has gone Republican, and Leonard elected Judge, Wren to Congress, and "Col." Ellis to remain in Carson. Ormsby rolls up the handsome majority of 352, Washoe 240, Lyon 150, and Storey, we learn from private dispatches, is good for several hundred. The Great East also cuts down the Democratic vote so we feel sure that Nevada has proven true to herself. Glory enough for us.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL.

The WEEKLY JOURNAL, published every Saturday, will be furnished to those desiring it at $4.00 per year in advance. It will contain the local news of the week, a careful summary of the State, Pacific Coast and mining news, together with a variety of miscellaneous and editorial matter, containing more reading than any weekly paper ever published in the county. Those desiring to subscribe for the WEEKLY JOURNAL will please call at the publication office.

RENO VOTES.—Up to 2 A. M. when we went to press 110 votes only had been counted by the Judges of this precinct. These were mostly straight Republican, they having commenced on those first. The Judges will hardly be through to day, as a majority of the tickets to come are badly scratched.

The freight receipts for October at the C. P. freight office amount to nearly $95,000; amount received at the C. P. ticket office, $22,000.

WASHOE MAJORITIES.—Tilden 3 majority; Ellis 4; Kirkpatrick 6.

CLOTHES CLEANED AND DYED.—Mr. Felix McHugh having established a clothes cleaning and dyeing business at the Polard House, is now ready to clean all ladies' and gentlemen's clothing, blankets, gloves, all kinds of lace, and merino so that they will look as well as new. All kinds of dyeing done with neatness and dispatch. An experience of thirteen years in the East guarantees him to ensure satisfaction. Prices reasonable. Orders left at the dye works will be called for and returned. Give him a trial as all he asks.

BARBERSHOP.—S. Schwartz begs leave to inform his former patrons, and the public generally, that he can now be found at the International Hotel. Those who wish a nice clean shave, or shampoo, or hair cut, are requested to favor him with a call.

COUNTY VOTES.—The returns indicate that Washoe county will give Hayes and Wheeler a majority of 200 and over.

VERDICT MAJORITIES.—Hayes and Wheeler 20 majority; Boardman 25; Lamb 24; Norton 17; Comstock 22; Young 44; Fish 30; Cain 28; Ring 26; Hymers 27; Joy 16.

THE SUCCESSION IN WASHOE COUNTY.

We publish this morning official returns from most of the precincts in this county. It will readily be perceived that the Republican ticket has been gloriously triumphant. The county is safe for Hayes and Wheeler by just about 200, and Leonard, for Judge, and Wren, for Congress, will receive the same majority. The Democracy have not taken a trick. We are exceedingly pleased with the result, especially as to the National and State ticket, and we know our friends of the opposition will not feel very bad because Republicans have wrested the control of county affairs over. We assure them that the new officials will treat them as kindly as they have us, and will do their duty as thoroughly as they have done theirs. And now that the election is over let us all submit cheerfully, settle down to business, and work together with one accord for the true interests of Reno and Washoe county.

THE NATIONAL RESULT.

We must confess that it appears to us as though "Tilden, Honesty and Reform" has carried the day. It would be a lie to say we are pleased, for we look upon Hayes as a second Lincoln, and we believe the country would have been better off with him in the Presidential chair. Still, like a good citizen, we propose to submit to the inevitable. But we must confess we are disappointed at the result. And we discover, to our sorrow, that there are more Democrats in the United States than we hoped for. Our telegrams this morning give the latest election news obtainable up to 2 A. M. It is pretty evident that we have lost New York, Indiana, New Jersey, and possibly Wisconsin and other Northern States. Sammy J. Tilden is the next President and Thomas A. Hendricks the next Vice President.

THE STATE.

We guess there is no doubt but what Nevada has gone Republican, and Leonard elected Judge, Wren to Congress, and "Col." Ellis to remain in Carson. Ormsby rolls up the handsome majority of 352, Washoe 240, Lyon 150, and Storey, we learn from private dispatches, is good for several hundred. The Great East also cuts down the Democratic vote so we feel sure that Nevada has proven true to herself. Glory enough for us.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL.

The WEEKLY JOURNAL, published every Saturday, will be furnished to those desiring it at $4.00 per year in advance. It will contain the local news of the week, a careful summary of the State, Pacific Coast and mining news, together with a variety of miscellaneous and editorial matter, containing more reading than any weekly paper ever published in the county. Those desiring to subscribe for the WEEKLY JOURNAL will please call at the publication office.

RENO VOTES.—Up to 2 A. M. when we went to press 110 votes only had been counted by the Judges of this precinct. These were mostly straight Republican, they having commenced on those first. The Judges will hardly be through to day, as a majority of the tickets to come are badly scratched.

Magnificent room of cloaks and shawls, at less than San Francisco prices. A complete stock of furs; also for trimmings by the yard. Their hosiery is unequalled for style and beauty, and their carpets, house furnishing goods, flannels, blankets, etc., are at least 30 per cent. below San Francisco prices.
